Readings for 12th June 2022: Trinity Sunday

Old Testament Reading: Proverbs 8: 1 – 4, 22 – 31

¹Does not wisdom call? Does not understanding raise her voice?

²On the heights beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand;

³beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries aloud:

⁴“To you, O men, I call and my cry is to the children of man.” ...

²²“The LORD possessed me at the beginning of His work, the first of His acts of old.

²³Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

²⁴When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. ²⁵Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth, ²⁶before He had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the word.

²⁷When He established the heavens, I was there; when He drew a circle on the face of the deep, ²⁸when He made firm the skies above, when He established the fountains of the deep, ²⁹when He assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress His command, when He marked out the foundations of the earth, ³⁰then I was beside Him, like a master workman and I was daily His delight, rejoicing before Him always, ³¹rejoicing in His inhabited world and delighting in the children of man.

New Testament Reading: Romans 5: 1 – 5

¹Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

²Through Him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

³More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance

⁴and endurance produces character and character produces hope ⁵and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Gospel Reading: John 16: 12 – 15

Jesus [said], ¹²“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.

¹³When the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all the truth, for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak and He will declare to you the things that are to come.

¹⁴He will glorify me, for He will take what is mine and declare it to you.

¹⁵All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that He will take what is mine and declare it to you.

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, You have given us Your servants grace by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ Your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with You, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Almighty and eternal God, You have revealed Yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit and live and reign in the perfect unity of love. Hold us firm in this faith that we may know You in all Your ways and evermore rejoice in Your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever. Amen.

NOTICES

We no longer have to wear masks, but feel free to do so if you wish.

We recommend using hand sanitiser on arrival in church and are supportive of those who continue needing to be covid-careful.

The Flower Guild. We are still looking to recruit more members to the Guild and lessons can be provided if required. Even if you can offer a few hours at Festival times, it means we can enhance our beautiful church even more. Please contact me on 01531 670 037 or email Chris.lynch54@btinternet.com

Concerts. Our church hosts a number of concerts during the year, which means we need two people to be present during each of these – to ensure safety and various practical details. The task is not onerous! If you would be willing to help occasionally, please have a word with Peter Scull (or ring 630060) Thank you.

LEAF is looking for one or two people who enjoy gardening and who would like to help with a small gardening project at Ledbury Primary School. It would involve a couple of hours a week working with a couple of boys at the school, helping them to design and create a small garden. This would really help the boys and the school. If anyone is interested please contact Tony Hodder. Email leafledbury@gmail.com

Coffee/prayer rotas. Whilst we are grateful to all who have volunteered for the service of leading prayers and serving coffee certain guidelines need to be observed. During recent weeks some failures have occurred resulting in no coffee on one occasion, and on others it's been left to too small a team. Keith has also been left to cover for intercessions. Would you kindly ensure that you have entered your dates into your diary. If unable to carry out this ministry please arrange a swap. It would be helpful if you could also alter the rota in the vestry. My grateful thanks for your cooperation. Ann G.

Thank you so much to all our friends at St Michael's for the love, prayers and care you have given to us over the past six months as we moved our home from one part of Ledbury to another. We are still settling in and the flat is beautiful. Gwen and David Kirkham

Ledbury Church Concert Celebrates Vaughan Williams' Birthday

Acapella folk group Broomdasher, multi-instrumental trio Coracle, St Michael and All Angels' choir, organist Gus Orchard - and you - are invited to celebrate Vaughan Williams' 150th birthday by turning folk songs into hymns in the Church at 7.30pm on Saturday 25th June.

The concert comes to Ledbury as part of the National RVW150 programme of events marking the 150th birthday of Ralph Vaughan Williams.

It's called "From Pub to Pulpit"™ and is an imaginative and engaging concert which brings to life the musical journey of folk songs Vaughan Williams collected before "borrowing" the tunes for hymn arrangements in The English Hymnal he edited in 1906.

The organ and choir, Broomdasher and Coracle, all have their own sections of the concert, before everyone joins together for a rousing finale when the whole audience is invited to join in with some of our best-known hymns.

The hymns are "To Be a Pilgrim", "O Little Town of Bethlehem", "Tis Winter Now The Fallen Snow" and "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say." They emerge from the folk songs "Our Captain Calls", "The Ploughboy's Dream", "The Brisk Young Farmer" and "The Murder of Maria Marten".

The tour begins in the Gloucestershire village of Down Ampney, where Vaughan Williams was born, on the Queen's Platinum Jubilee weekend and ends a year later at the Three Choirs Festival in Gloucestershire.

"It's an enjoyable way to celebrate one of our best-loved composers - and it brings together his classical, church and folk music in an imaginative way which truly encourages everyone to join in," said Project Director, John Palmer.

Broomdasher are a well-known five-voice London-based acapella group, who brought their Country Diary of an Edwardian Lady folk musical to Herefordshire last year. All their recordings are in the British Library's National Sound Archive Collection as "an outstanding example of grassroots folk music today".

Coracle is a new trio bringing together three very experienced and well-respected musicians who have large followings in their own right. They are Paul Hutchinson who is an accordionist and one half of the extremely successful duo, Belshazzar's Feast, his long-term collaborator and clarinettist Karen Wimhurst and Ann Tam, who plays a range of unusual instruments, including nyckelharpa, hurdy gurdy and viol da gamba.

Tickets cost £15 from Ticketsource or call 01531 641829
